

NICODEMUS SOUGHT OUT JESUS

NETTLETON 8.7.8.7 D ("Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing")

Nicodemus sought out Jesus at a lonely, quiet hour.

He said, "Teacher, God is with you! For in you we see God's power."

Jesus turned and gave an answer filled with challenge and with love:

"You can never see God's kingdom till you're born from heav'n above."

"Born again!" said Nicodemus. "Is that something one can do?"

Jesus said, "Don't be surprised now that you must be born anew.

And it's not by your own doing; wind and Spirit will blow free!

They are not for your controlling; trust in God for what will be."

God, your Spirit still surprises like an ever-changing wind,
Bringing life and love and justice where despair and death have been.

May we see your Spirit working as a gift from heav'n above.

Blest, may we then be a blessing to this world that you so love.

A Service of Prayer, Song and Contemplation

“The Weight Upon Your Soul”

Saturday Evenings

March 11 * March 18 * March 25

5:00pm

This brief Taize-style service will be offered to deepen our Lenten experience. The service will consist of prayer, Scripture, an original song with reflection from Rev. Sherry Cothran, and a simple, musical “chant” that will allow participants to meditate on God’s presence.

Focus themes will be forgiveness,
the weight of this journey, and finding your path.

Please invite someone who may not be comfortable in a traditional church service and come let yourself be with God in a different way.
